

Elements, Compounds, Mixtures

Draw the graphic organizer in your notebook. Cut out the boxes and sort them, then answer the questions.
Glue the final product in your notebook.

After completing the activity, answer these questions.

1. Define molecule and give an example.
2. Describe how a compound is different from the elements that make it up.